28-4 Insects & Their Relatives

- I. Insects and Their Relatives
 - A. Characteristics:
 - 1. One pair of antennae
 - 2. Appendages that do not branch

Ted-Ed: Why so many insects?

B. Habitat: terrestrial, fresh and salt water

II. Centipedes and Millipedes

- A. Centipedes
- Description: Long, wormlike body;
 pair legs/segment
- 2. Lifestyle = predator or carnivore

- B. Millipedes
- Description: Long, wormlike body;
 pairs legs/segment
- 2. Lifestyle = decomposer or herbivore

III. Insects

- A. Characteristics:
- 1. Body divided into 3 parts (head, thorax, abdomen)
- B. Feeding
- Why are the mouthparts so different in different insects? They feed on a large variety of foods
- 2. Saliva contains specialized enzymes:
- a) Helps break down food
- b) Prevents blood from clotting (mosquitos)
- c) Change nectar into honey (bees)

C. Movement

- 1. Walk/jump
- 2. Fly

D. Insect societies

1. Society: Separate individuals that depend on one another for survival Video & Ted-Ed Video

2. Within societies, there is division of labor

Ted-Ed Hexagons

